

Your lowest cost option to:

- Pay your tax preparation fees out of your refund.
- Take advantage of direct deposit from the IRS even if you don't have a bank account.

WHAT METHOD WORKS BEST FOR YOU?

E1 Visa® Prepaid
Debit Card

$5

You leave the office with card in hand - no need to come back!

Your card will be automatically loaded and you can choose to receive a text or e-mail alert letting you know the card is funded and ready to use. The card is accepted everywhere Visa debit is.

You can reload your card or even have your payroll or benefits direct deposited to the card for use year-round.

Direct Deposit

$10

Easy and convenient for your busy lifestyle.

You file your taxes and leave the office knowing that the refund proceeds will be direct deposited into your bank account.

Receive your refund directly from the IRS. This funding takes 8-15 days and can be delivered through direct deposit or a check mailed to you. However there is not an option to pay your tax preparer out of your refund.

No
Cost

Check

Instead of waiting for the IRS to mail you a check, your tax preparer will print a check for your refund proceeds in office. Simply come in and pick it up! It's safe and convenient.

The check disbursement allows you the ability to take advantage of IRS direct deposit and still receive your refund proceeds in check form.

Checks can be cashed at thousands of popular locations nationwide.
